SOCIAL CORNER POETRY. Because I Had a Friend. Life never would have been so rich.
To me so well worth while,
But for that cheering word you et But for that chemy mille; in burden had so heavy grown, My heart was filled with care; nover would have reached the goal. Had you, friend, not been there.

Decause, because I had a friend,
One who was real and true;
Because your friendship did not fail
Just when I needed you.
I had the strength to clamber on;
I had the will to do;
Because I knew I had a friend. I've had no cause to rue

Oh, there are records of the past That tell of trust sublime;
Of friendships that survived the test
Of Soubt, disaster, time;
But I know one that's up to date.
That had not had an end
When a man defented fought and wonBecause he had a friend.

Just a mile o' road, my lad, Leading to the town— But it's mighty rough, my tad; Takes you up and down. Lot o' cuts and mud, my isd, On the road to town. Need your lights turned on, my ind, While you're going down.

Wish you wouldn't start, my lad, On the road to town— So rough eafer here, my lad— Yes, I see your frown!

Fve been on the road, my lad, Miles—to many towns; Found the going rough, my lad— Less of ups than downs!

Yes, I know you'll go, my lad,
Miles and miles to town—
Here's the key—run out the car—
To the job my brown!
